The Black Girl's Guide to Vengeance (and Vodka)

"Some codes are meant to be broken."

LOGLINE

After being dumped by her tech-bro boyfriend for an AI built using her own emotional data, an Atlanta software engineer builds a viral revenge app. But when her creation spirals into chaos, she must choose between digital destruction and real-world healing, and maybe even love.

PROJECT SNAPSHOT

❤️ GENRE
Romantic Comedy / Tech Satire

💻 FORMAT
Feature Film (100 min)

🎬 TONE
Insecure x Silicon Valley with Set It Off edge

📍 SETTING
Modern-day Atlanta: tech corridor + cultural roots

👑 TARGET
Millennials & Gen Z (18-45) with crossover appeal

THE WORLD & THEMES

WHY THIS STORY NOW

- Viral callout culture meets real healing
- Navigates Black womanhood, tech ethics, emotional labor
- Juicy mix of revenge, romance, and redemption
- Set in Atlanta's booming Black tech and queer cultural scene

CORE THEMES

- Digital harm vs healing
- Sisterhood as resistance
- Revenge vs restorative justice
- Real love in the algorithm age

CHARACTERS

SIMONE CARTER
(29)
Software engineer, emotionally brilliant but romantically burned

JAMESON COLE
(34)
Secret romance novelist with quiet fire and deep empathy

LOLA JENKINS
(32)
Therapist and ex-dancer, sensual and grounded

DIVINE CARTER
(45)
Drag matriarch and community truth-teller

BRANDON MATTHEWS
(30s)
Tech bro antagonist, emotionally immature, algorithm-obsessed

CASTING & COMPARABLE TITLES

CASTING WISHLIST

Simone: Zazie Beetz, Dominique Fishback

Jameson: Trevante Rhodes, Yahya Abdul-Mateen II

Divine: Billy Porter, Nicco Annan

Lola: Teyana Taylor, Taylour Paige

Brandon: Glen Powell (as a twist)

COMPARABLE TITLES

Insecure: Character depth + humor

Set It Off: Sisterhood & stakes

Someone Great: Post-breakup rebirth

Black Mirror: Digital ethics

VISUAL STYLE & TONE

Look & Feel: 35mm-inspired warmth + sleek UI overlays

Aesthetic: Bold but not glossy; elevated but culturally grounded

Color Palette: Burnt orange, plum, teal, muted gold

Soundtrack: Ari Lennox, Childish Gambino, Doechii

STATUS & TEAM

Current Status:

- ✓ Treatment complete
- ✓ Visual deck & poster ready
- ✓ Script in development

Ideal Home: Netflix, Amazon, Hulu, HBO Max, Peacock

Created By: Kelly Tenney / NCCA Entertainment

Seeking: Packaging partners, talent attachments, development funds

Contact: Kelly Tenney | NCCA Entertainment

contact@nccaentertainment.com

www.nccaentertainment.com