EXPOSED

A DOCUMENTARY SERIES

SERIES TITLE: EXPOSED

FORMAT:

Investigative Documentary / Docu-Reality
1-Hour Episodes | Anthology Format

LOGLINE:

Exposed is a raw, emotionally-charged docuseries where victims of non-violent but life-altering crimes, fraud, digital abuse, workplace sabotage, seek justice and closure by confronting their perpetrators face-to-face or through legal battles.

SERIES OVERVIEW:

While most true crime series focus on violent acts, Exposed shines a light on the often-overlooked emotional and financial devastation caused by white-collar, digital, and institutional exploitation. Each episode follows one survivor's journey, from their initial trauma through an investigation and, ultimately, a personal confrontation or courtroom reckoning. It's about justice but also about reclaiming power.

KEY THEMES:

- The long tail of trauma from "invisible" crimes
 - The cost (and courage) of seeking closure
 - Power, accountability, and emotional justice in modern society

VISUAL & STORY STYLE:

A hybrid of intimate interviews, real-time vérité footage, and cinematic reenactments. Stories unfold with emotional pacing, digital reconstructions (texts, posts, receipts), and unflinching honesty. Think Dirty Money meets Intervention, with the catharsis of Red Table Talk.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Adults 25–54 | Fans of The Vow, The Dropout, 60 Minutes, Web of Lies

Socially conscious viewers drawn to justice, real human drama, and redemption arcs

WHY NOW?

In a world obsessed with “cancel culture,” Exposed asks deeper questions: What does real accountability look like? Who gets justice and who has to fight for it?
