THE EXTRACTION

PRESTIGE PSYCHOLOGICAL THRILLER

Forty-eight hours to save the one life she was never trained to reach.

Created by Kelly R. Tenney

A clean hook with a built-in clock

A legendary hostage negotiator must save her kidnapped daughter from the terminally ill bomber she imprisoned fifteen years ago, a man who has studied and defeated every technique she knows.

The negotiator cannot negotiate. She wins only when she stops performing expertise and hears what her captor cannot hide.

The setting creates pressure, not decoration

WORLD

Atlanta crisis infrastructure under pressure: FBI command rooms, surveillance networks, civic systems and a captivity mapped in eight-counts.

WHY NOW

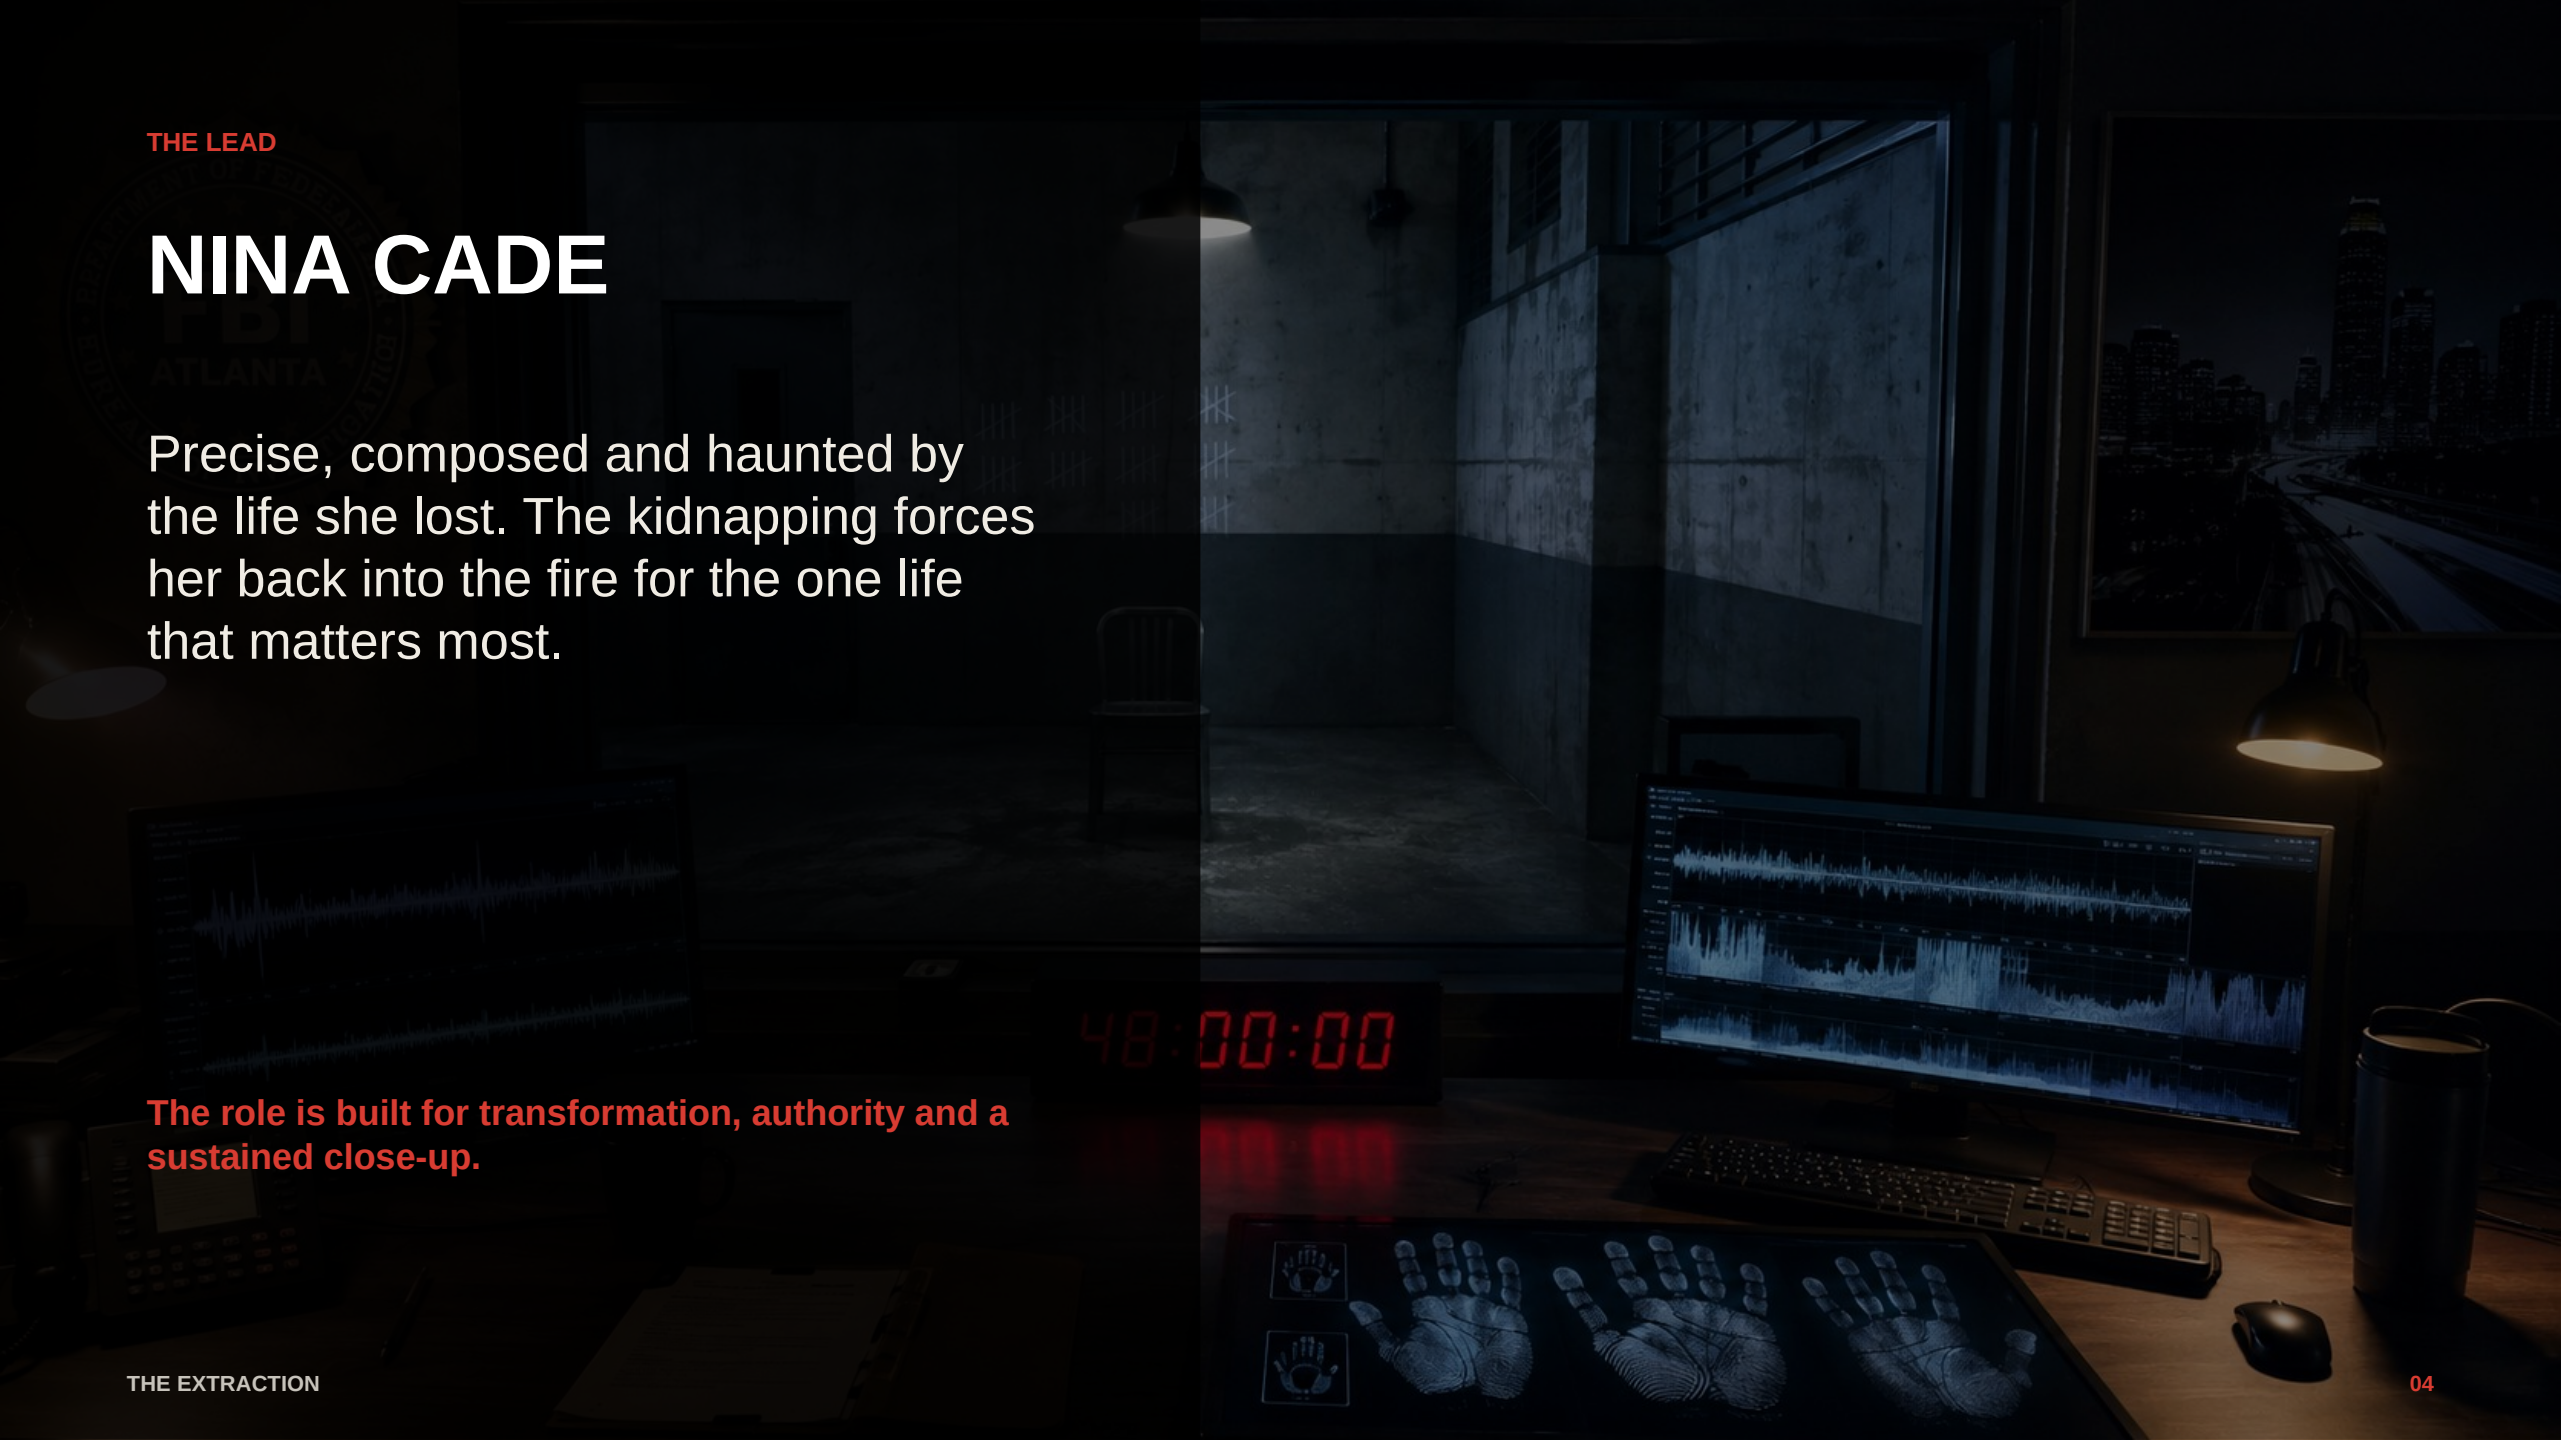

The systems built to protect Nina contain the leak. Her expertise is celebrated, studied and finally weaponized against her.

THE LEAD

NINA CADE

Precise, composed and haunted by the life she lost. The kidnapping forces her back into the fire for the one life that matters most.

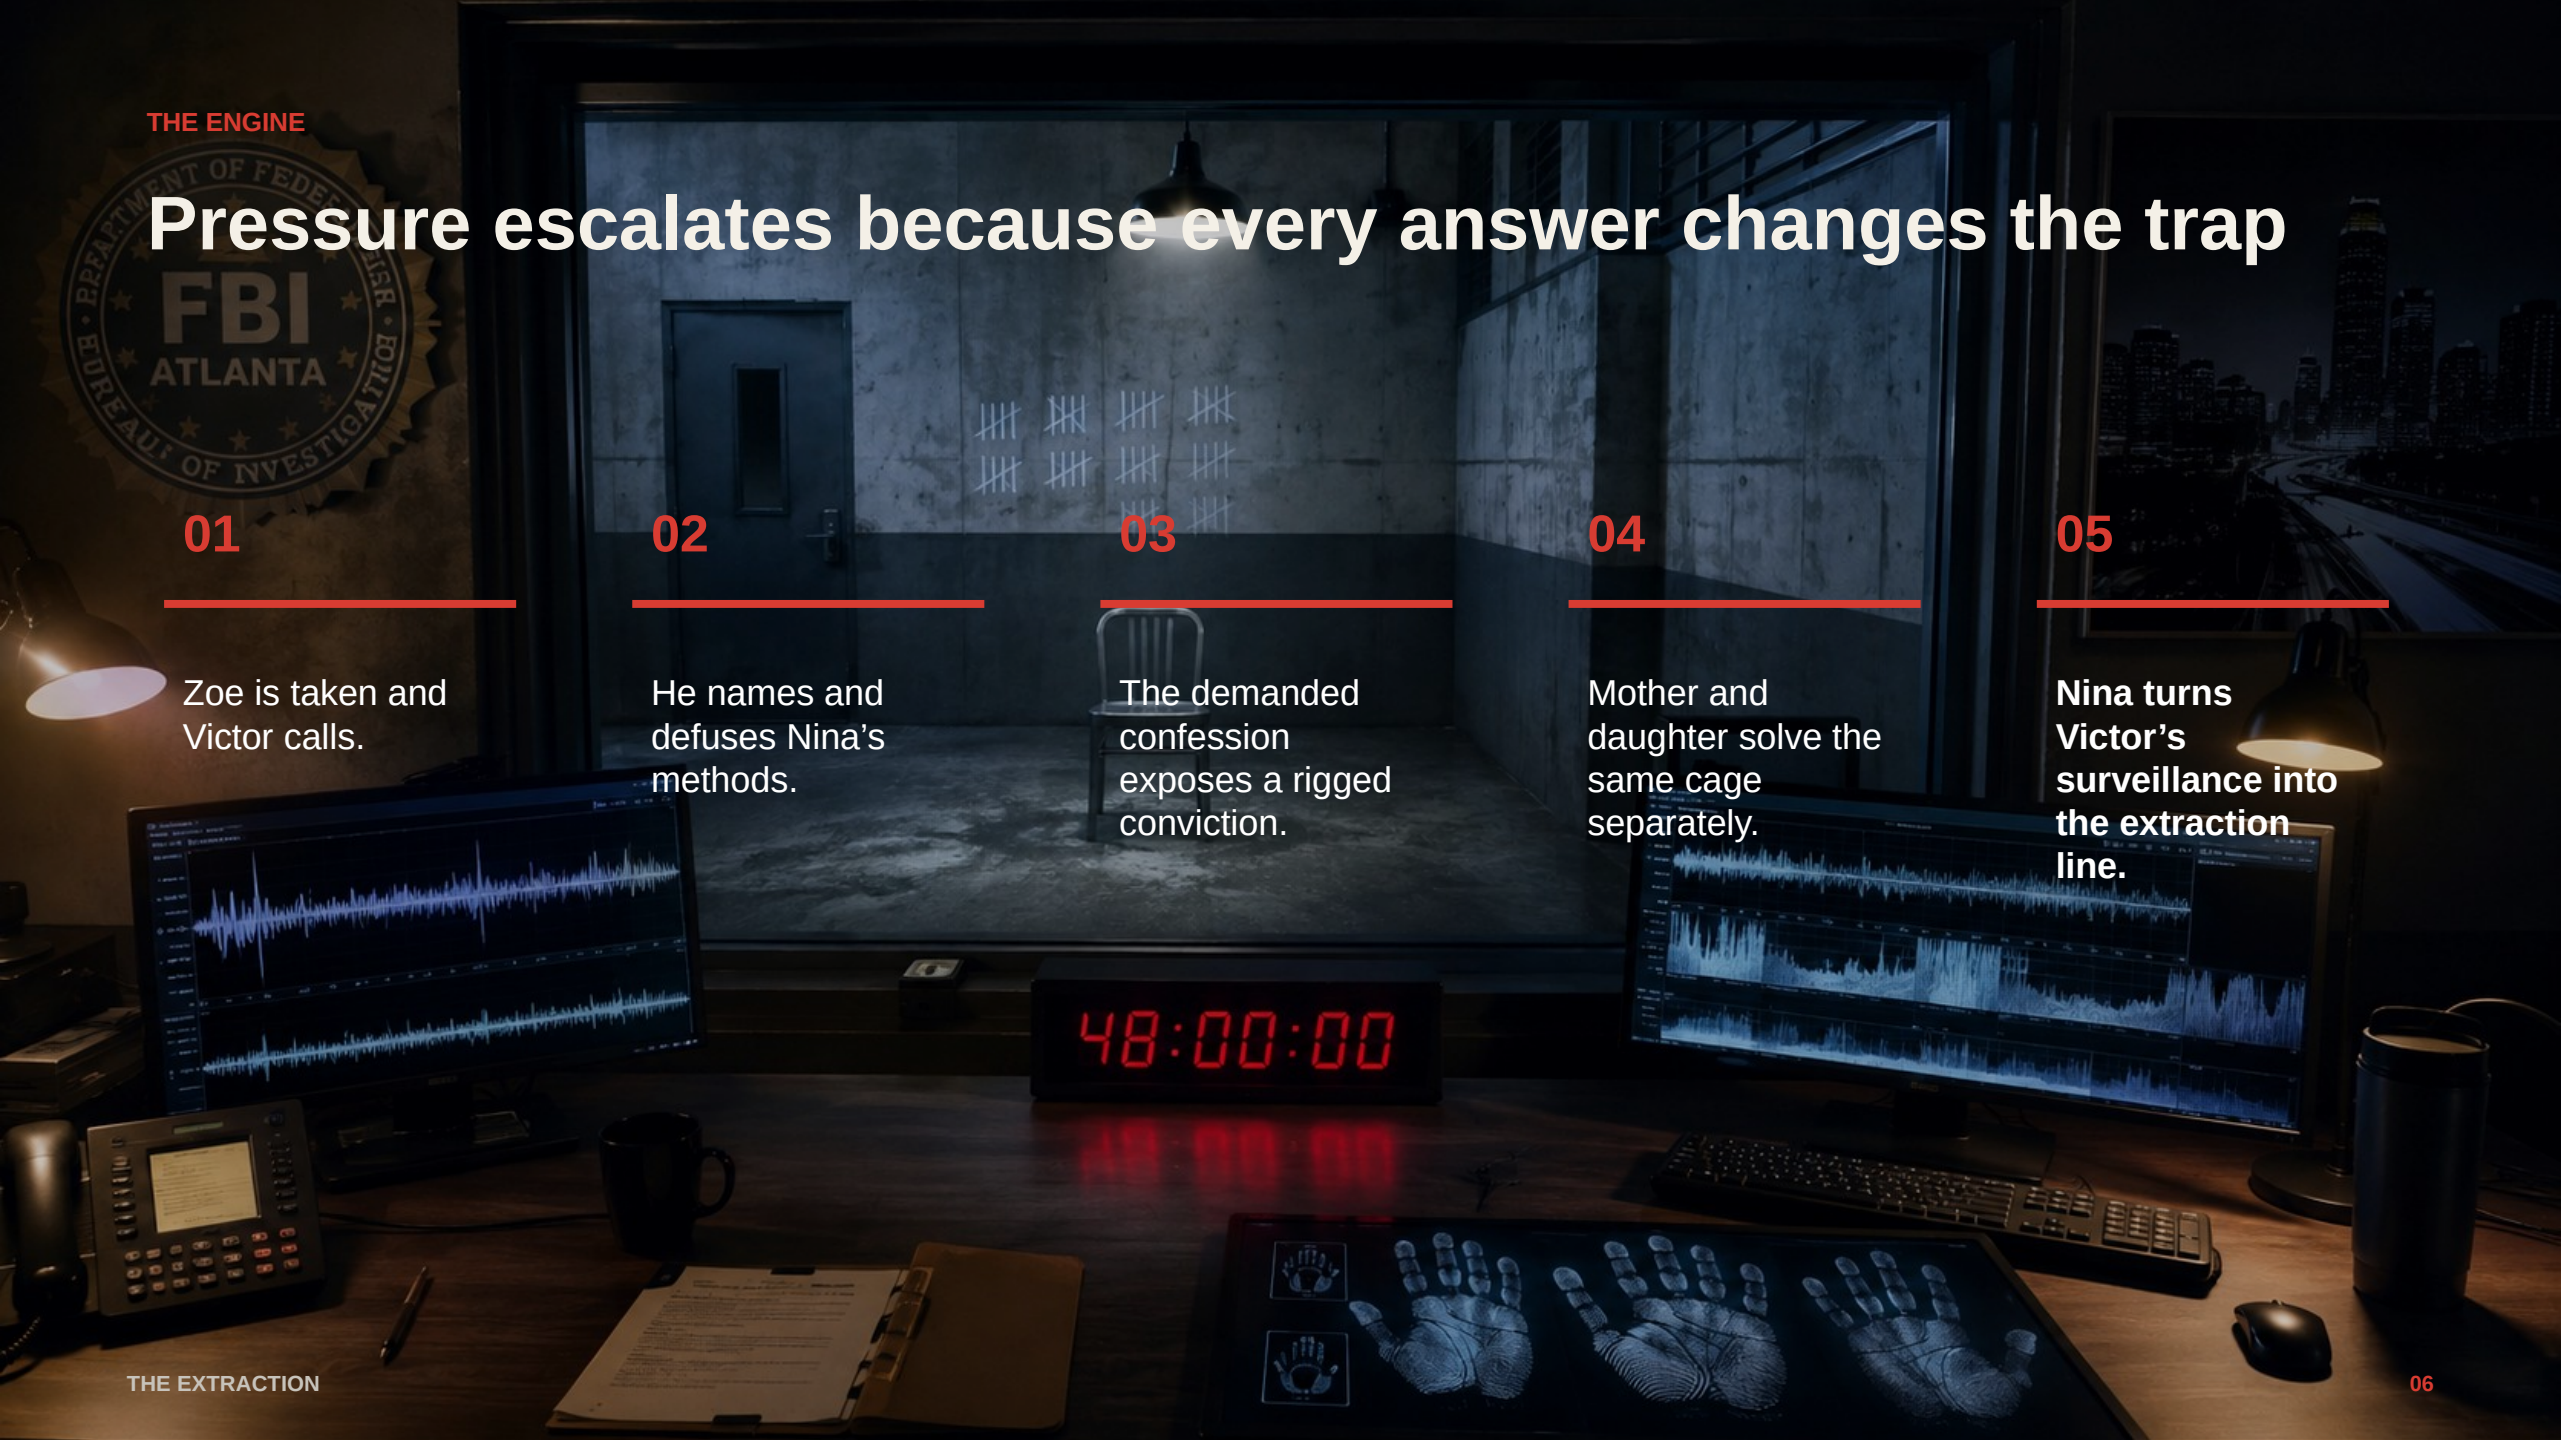

The role is built for transformation, authority and a sustained close-up.

Every ally carries a competing version of the truth

ZOE CADE	A sixteen-year-old dancer who maps her cage in eight-counts.
VICTOR STONE	Terminally ill, patient and terrified of dying unfinished.
FELIX OKONKWO	The FBI mentor who kept Nina alive with a lie.
DIANA REEVES	The warmest agent in the building and the long con at its center.

Pressure escalates because every answer changes the trap

01

Zoe is taken and Victor calls.

02

He names and defuses Nina’s methods.

03

The demanded confession exposes a rigged conviction.

04

Mother and daughter solve the same cage separately.

05

Nina turns Victor’s surveillance into the extraction line.

THE SILENCE OF THE LAMBS × THE NIGHT OF × YOUR HONOR

WITH PULSE

Commercial propulsion is carried by morally complex characters, a specific cultural world and a visual motif that can power the campaign.

Eight escalating hours built around a 48-hour clock, a contained two-hander engine and an Atlanta-based federal conspiracy.

The thriller delivers a reckoning, not a lecture

01 Control versus listening

02 Expertise used as a weapon

03 Institutional rot

04 Mother and daughter as doubles
