DEADLY AMBITIONS

30MIN EPISODE
TV SERIES
UNSCRIPTED

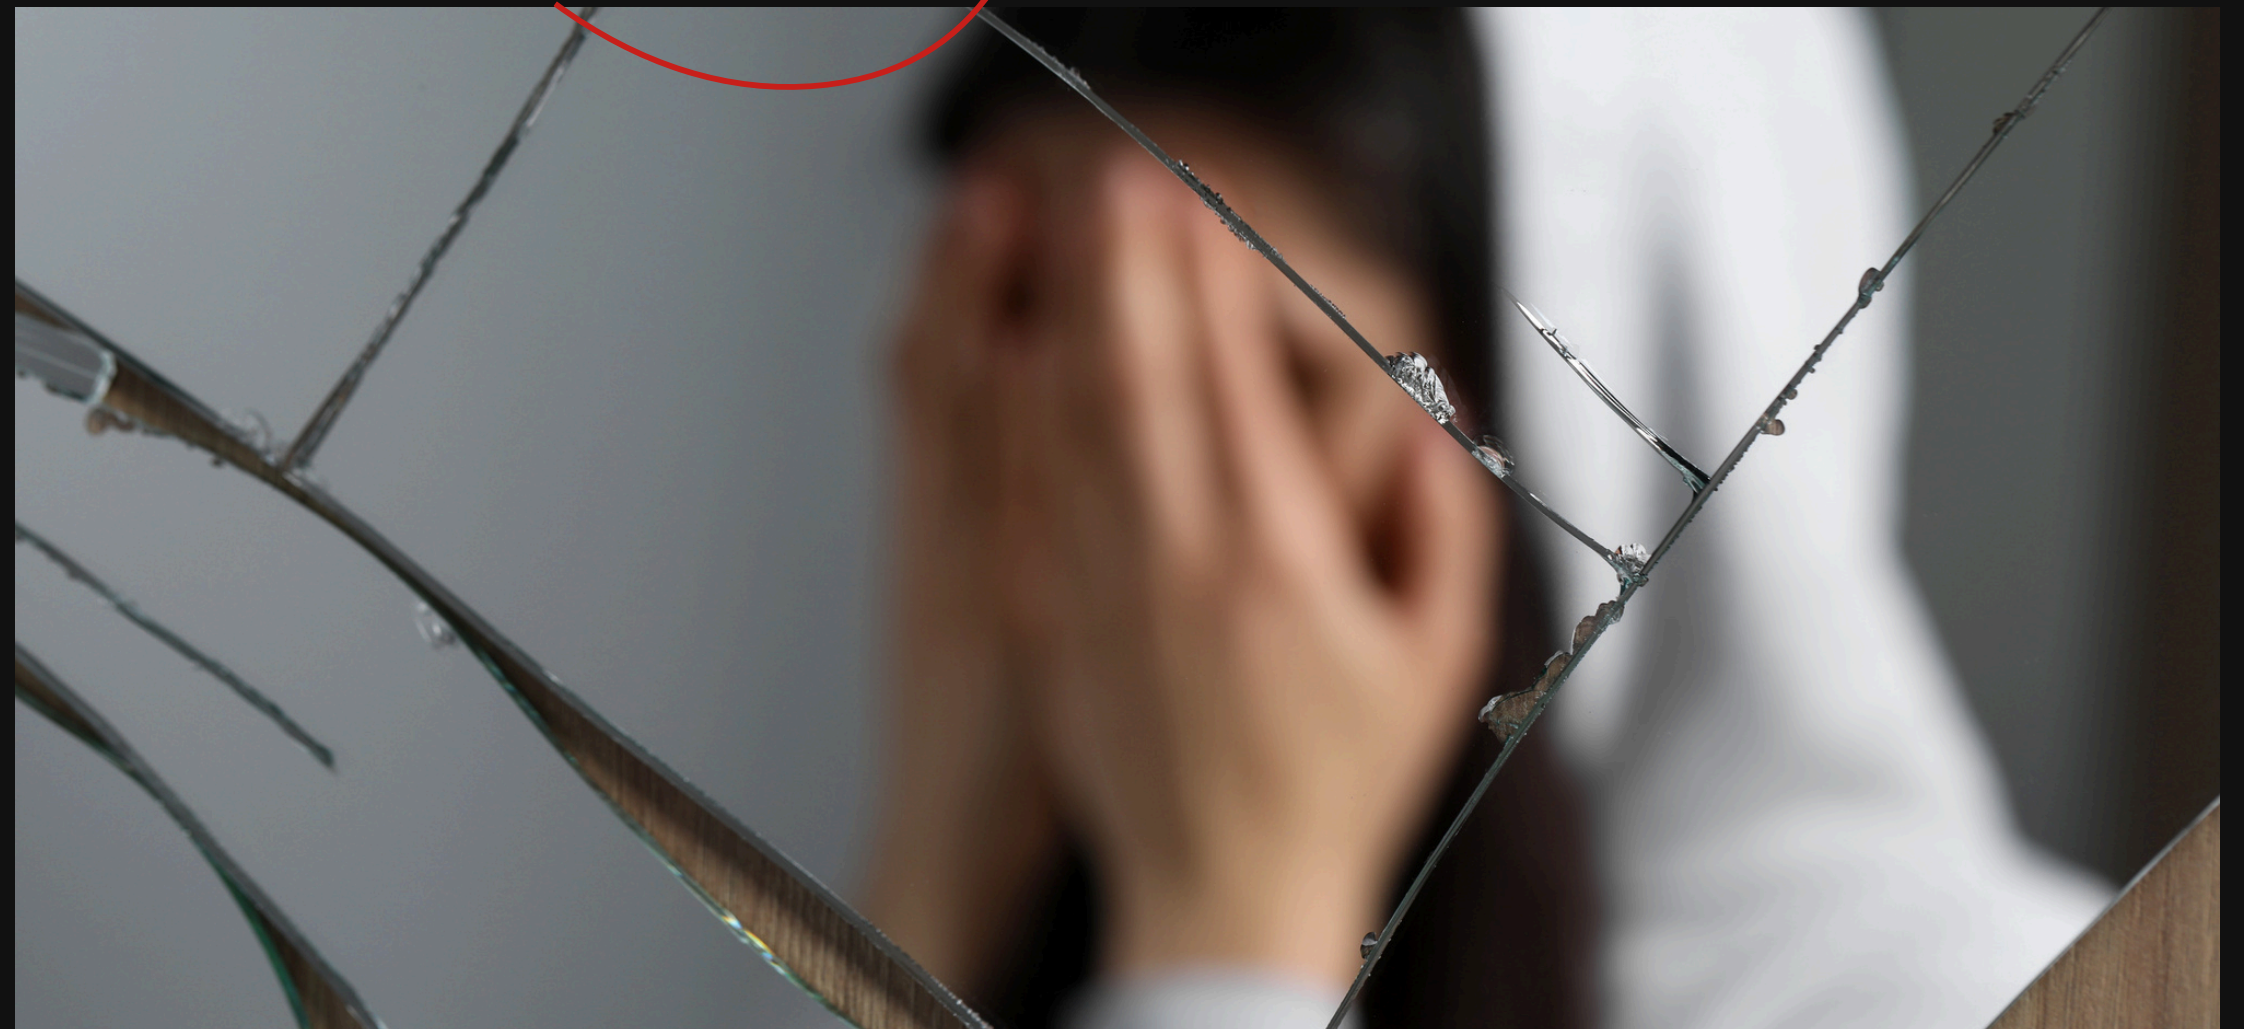

LOGLINE

When dreams collide with ego, envy, and betrayal, ambition can kill. Deadly Ambition unpacks real-life cases where the pursuit of success — in music, fashion, beauty, fitness, and entrepreneurship — ends not in triumph, but in tragedy.

SERIES OVERVIEW

Deadly Ambition is a cinematic true crime docuseries that dives into real stories where dreams of success spiral into betrayal and violence. Set within the Black creative and entrepreneurial worlds — from beauty and music to fitness and fashion — each episode explores how ego, jealousy, and ambition can turn friends into enemies and protégés into killers. Through high-gloss reenactments, insider interviews, and digital trails, the series reveals the emotional toll and deadly consequences when the pursuit of fame goes too far.

SERIES STRUCTURE

1. Cold Open / Flash-Forward Tease (2–3 min)

A glimpse of the tragedy or scandal (911 call, headline, funeral image, police footage)

Cut to black.

2. Act I – The Rise

Interviews with family, childhood friends, old social media clips

Early ambition, small wins, who they were before the fame

3. Act II – The Breakthrough

Key career moment (viral video, signing, major collab, press run)

Rise to visibility — but hint at trouble (rivalries, tension, behavioral change)

SERIES STRUCTURE

4. Act III – The Turning Point

A betrayal. A mistake. A decision that can't be undone. Interviews become tenser. People stop talking. Texts and footage reveal pressure building.

5. Act IV – The Fall

The incident: arrest, murder, disappearance, financial collapse
Expert commentary (detectives, lawyers, journalists)
Visuals: police cams, courtroom sketch overlays, headlines

6. Act V – The Legacy

What was lost. What could've been.
Someone close reflects: "They were more than this moment..."
End with silence or a haunting quote from the subject, like a lyric or IG post.

VISUAL STYLE & TOOLS

Stylized reenactments (with faces hidden or blurred for legal/taste reasons)

Social media screen animations (DMs, viral tweets, story posts)

Cinematic b-roll of cities, studios, courtrooms, etc.

Archival footage: music videos, news clips, reality TV moments

Moody lighting, split frames, slow dissolves — glam turned gritty

INTERVIEW SUBJECTS

Family members and close friends

Former collaborators, stylists, label execs, PR reps

Investigators or attorneys (where applicable)

Journalists, cultural critics, bloggers who covered the fall

Mental health or industry experts (optional for context)

Soundtrack & Score:

Underscore with eerie hip-hop loops, ambient trap beats, or gospel chords

Original or licensed tracks from the subject (if available)

Haunting use of silence and minimalism in emotional moments

POTENCIAL

EPISODES

1. “Murder at the Mansion: The Story of Andre Montgomery Jr.”

Subject: Andre Montgomery Jr. (grandson of Sweetie Pie’s Miss Robbie)

Summary:

The heir to a soul food empire and reality TV legacy, Andre had dreams beyond St. Louis. But his murder—tied to a murder-for-hire plot orchestrated by his uncle, Tim Norman—shocked the nation. This episode unpacks family ambition, legacy, greed, and betrayal from within.

2. “The Price of the Pulpit: The Jamal Bryant Scandal”

Subject: Jamal H. Bryant (Pastor, New Birth Church)

Summary:

A gifted preacher and social justice figure, Bryant built a massive following through charisma and activism. But a series of extramarital affairs, paternity controversies, and public feuds threatened his brand and his church. This episode explores spiritual influence corrupted by ego and indulgence.

3. “From Love to Lethal: The Mercedes Morr Story”

Subject: Janae Gagnier a.k.a. Mercedes Morr (Instagram model)

Summary:

A Houston-based influencer with a growing fanbase, Mercedes was known for her glamour and grit. But when she was found murdered in her apartment by a stalker, the industry was forced to reckon with parasocial obsession, online fame, and deadly entitlement.

POTENCIAL

EPISODES

7. “The Fall of a Fitness Queen: The Brittney Taylor Saga”

Subject: Brittney Taylor (Love & Hip-Hop star / fitness entrepreneur)

Summary:

With fame from reality TV and growing business influence, Taylor’s brand was rising—until violent altercations, legal drama, and social media beefs threatened it all. An episode exploring clout, confrontation culture, and the weaponization of online fame.

8. “Rivals in Rhyme: The Bankroll Fresh Murder”

Subject: Bankroll Fresh vs. No Plug (Street Execs labelmates)

Summary:

Bankroll Fresh was poised to be Atlanta’s next big voice—until he was gunned down at a recording studio after an argument with a former friend. Caught on surveillance and steeped in street code, the story unpacks how fragile fame becomes when the past isn’t left behind.

9. “Model Behavior: The Death of Ryan Singleton”

Subject: Ryan Singleton (model and aspiring actor)

Summary:

After moving to Hollywood from Georgia to chase fame, Singleton was found dead in a California desert—organs missing, mystery unsolved. This episode dives into his ambitions, the fashion world’s silence, and what happens when young dreamers vanish.

10. “Million-Dollar Meltdown: The Terry Kennedy Case”

Subject: Terry Kennedy (Pro Skater and entrepreneur)

Summary:

One of the first Black faces of pro skateboarding, Kennedy used his platform to break barriers. But after years of erratic behavior and industry estrangement, he was arrested for a fatal assault. This story examines fame, unchecked trauma, and the violence that can follow when you lose your identity.
