

HOT MESS EXPRESS

Raucous Dramedy Feature Film

Sometimes you have to break a few rules... and a few things... to fix yourself.

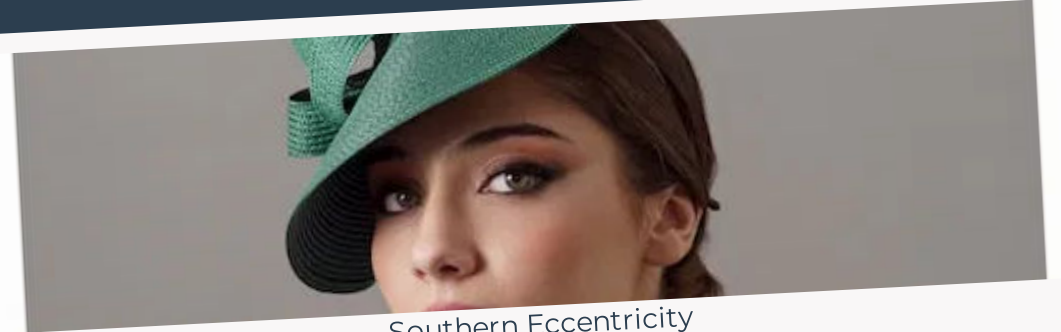

LOGLINE

When a perfectionist Black supermom finally snaps, she and her two equally stressed friends flee to a bizarre backwoods B&B run by an eccentric Southern belle. Amid physical disasters, cultural clashes, and karaoke therapy, they confront their fears, test their friendship, and accidentally destroy half the furniture.

THE HOOK

Unique Selling Points:

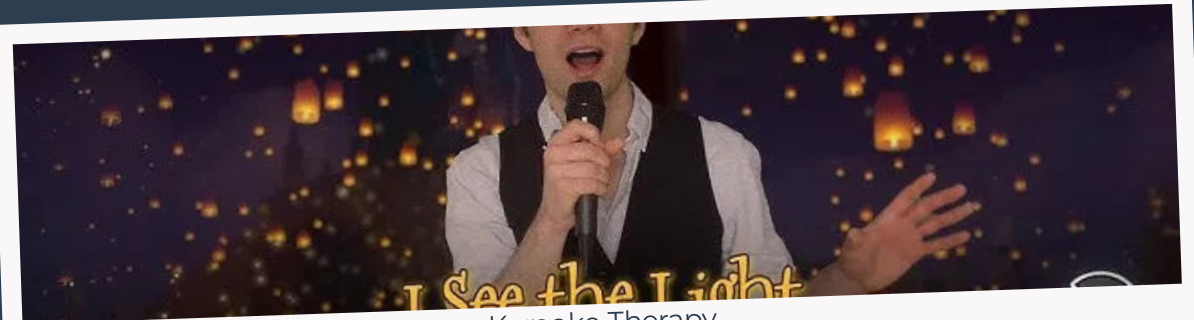

- Combines Girls Trip-level physical comedy with Steel Magnolias-style Southern eccentricity.
- Female-led, multi-generational ensemble with sharp dialogue and high slapstick energy.
- Rich visual contrast between "perfect suburbia" and "Southern Gothic chaos."

PLOT SUMMARY

1

THE BREAKING POINT

Kendra's suburban perfection implodes after "The Skillet Incident" and a PTA auction disaster. Shauna and Lilly whisk her away to The Monroe House for an impromptu wellness retreat.

2

CHAOS THERAPY

The retreat spirals into a comedy of errors — botched spa treatments, autocorrect panic, and karaoke chaos — revealing deeper insecurities.

3

EMBRACING THE MESS

After midnight disasters, the women face their fears, fix some furniture, and embrace imperfection. Six months later, their lives are messier — and happier.
