🔥 This isn't just a music story. It's a reckoning.

Set against the soul-scorched backdrop of 1970s Atlanta, SOUL ON FIRE exposes the music industry's systemic erasure of Black voices through the journey of Lena Maye Johnson. More than a rise-and-fall tale, this is a battle cry for artistic ownership, cultural justice, and creative liberation.

CORE THEMES

- Cultural Theft & Reparative Justice
- Systemic Racism in Entertainment
- Artistic Integrity vs. Survival
- Gospel, Soul, and the Power of Ancestral Voice

LYRIC EXCERPT: "WHO'S GONNA SING FOR ME?"

"When the truth gets buried under chains and keys,
Who's gonna sing…
Who's gonna sing for me?"

"Some voices, once ignited, can never be extinguished."

✨ Franchise Potential

Future seasons explore Detroit (Motown), Chicago (blues), and New Orleans (jazz). Each rooted in music. Each reclaiming history.
