

FLIP SIDE OF LOVE

When love survives the edits.

FLIP SIDE OF LOVE

Genre: Romantic Dramedy

Tone: Warm, witty, grounded in truth

Setting: Atlanta, Georgia — present day

Target Audience: 25–54, multicultural streaming and cable audiences (OWN, BET+, Netflix, Lifetime)

Synopsis:

When Kendra Blake, a rising reality TV producer, returns to Atlanta to film her latest home renovation pilot, she's blindsided by the show's assigned contractor — Dez Carter, her ex, the one who ghosted her on Juneteenth weekend two years ago. What starts as a high-stakes professional reunion quickly spirals into a deeper reckoning with memory, legacy, and unfinished emotional business.

The house they're restoring hides more than structural damage — it holds the buried story of a Black architect erased from history. As Kendra uncovers the truth, she must fight a network that wants clickbait over context, and a glossy co-host plucked from her past threatening to rewrite her narrative.

With sharp banter, slow-burn chemistry, and a soulful backdrop of Southern heritage, Flip Side of Love becomes more than a renovation series. It's a story about what we restore when we stop running — from our work, from our people, and from ourselves.

In the end, love isn't just what survives the edits. It's what you choose to build, frame by frame.

FLIP SIDE OF LOVE

A Romantic Dramedy about Truth, Legacy, and Second Chances

Written by: KRT

Production Ready | 95-Minute TV Feature Film

Target Buyers: Lifetime, OWN, BET+, Hallmark Mahogany, Netflix (Strong Black Lead)

---

Logline

When a driven TV producer returns home to film a historic home renovation, she's shocked to discover the project's contractor is her ex — the man who broke her heart. As old sparks resurface and buried Black history comes to light, they must navigate love, legacy, and the power of telling the truth... on and off camera.

---

Tone & Format

Genre: Romantic Dramedy

Tone: Smart, soulful, and funny — a mix of Queen Sugar, Home Town Takeover, and The Photograph

Format: 1 x 95-minute MOW (TV movie or limited streaming film)

---

Setting

Atlanta, Georgia — a vibrant West End neighborhood undergoing renovation and cultural revival. The historic home at the heart of the story becomes a metaphor for the relationships and truths being restored.

---

Core Themes

- Second Chances: Not just in love, but in storytelling, in legacy, and in self-worth.
  - Black Legacy: Uncovering untold stories of Black excellence, erasure, and community-building.
  - Romantic Realism: A love story that values emotional honesty, not grand gestures.
  - Creative Integrity vs. Corporate Spin: What happens when storytelling becomes content?
-

Main Characters

KENDRA BLAKE (34) –

A sharp, stylish TV producer who's mastered control — until she's forced to work with the man who once broke her heart. She's equal parts ambition and vulnerability, now learning that telling the truth can mean risking it all.

DEZ CARTER (35) –

A talented contractor with quiet charm and a code of honor. He builds with his hands and speaks with his actions. Dez never stopped loving Kendra — but showing up now means proving he's not the same man who let her go.

MARISSA (30s) –

Kendra's ride-or-die producer bestie. Snarky, wise, and one step ahead of the network at all times. She's the voice in Kendra's ear (and the occasional clapback in the group chat).

MISS LORRAINE (70s) –

The neighborhood's living archive. She holds the truth of the house's past — and delivers it with regal flair, side-eye, and unmatched comedic timing.

MILES JENNINGS (35) –

Kendra's network-approved "safe" ex, parachuted into the show to boost ratings. Handsome, polished, and a little too camera-ready — he's the love triangle the story refuses to fake.

---

The Hook

Flip Side of Love blends:

- The slow-burn romance of The Best Man series
- The home renovation premise of Fixer Upper: The Castle
- The emotional legacy layers of Sylvie's Love and A Black Lady Sketch Show's dramatic moments

...into a heartfelt, high-stakes romance that builds, brick by brick.

---

Why This Film? Why Now?

In a time when audiences are hungry for authenticity, Flip Side of Love dares to say that the best love stories aren't always polished. They're messy, meaningful, and built on truth. This film:

- Centers Black professionals and creators in aspirational but grounded roles
  - Honors cultural legacy without trauma voyeurism
  - Appeals to audiences across age demos (25–54) with romance, nostalgia, and realness
  - Leverages the popular “home restoration meets heart restoration” trend in a fresh, culturally rooted way
-

Production Highlights

- Location: Single location primary set (historic Atlanta home) with minimal exteriors
- Tone/Color: Earth tones, natural light, mid-century warmth meets present-day style
- Casting: Black leads, intergenerational ensemble; ideal for talent with existing audience bases

- Delivery: Production-ready script and lookbook available upon request
-

Comparable Projects

| Title                                                  | Platform             | Why It Works                                |
|--------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| Queen Sugar                                     | OWN                  | Intimate family stories with cultural depth |
| A Nashville Legacy                              | HallmarkMahogany | Romance meets Black history                 |
| The Perfect Find                                | Netflix              | Emotional second-chance romance             |
| Love &amp; Marriage: Huntsville(unscripted) | OWN                  | Renovation and relationship intersections   |
| The Photograph                                  | Universal            | Slow-burn, grown-up Black love story        |

---

Audience & Reach

Core Demo: Black women 28–54

Secondary: Romance lovers, HGTV/Home Design fans, millennial nostalgic viewers

Streaming Potential: Strong social engagement through #BlackLove #DesignDrama and “From Demo to I Do?” teasers

---

Tagline Ideas

- “Some stories don’t need editing. Just space.”
- “From demo to I do — or don’t?”
- “What if the house wasn’t the only thing worth restoring?”
- “Love, legacy, and one very complicated renovation.”

Main Characters & Casting Suggestions

Kendra Blake (34)

TV producer. Sharp, vulnerable, ambitious but wounded. A woman trying to restore more than just a house.

Casting Options:

- Teyonah Parris
- Logan Browning
- Susan Kelechi Watson

Dez Carter (35)

General contractor. Stoic, dependable, emotionally scarred. A man who expresses through actions, not words.

Casting Options:

- Yahya Abdul-Mateen II
- Trevante Rhodes
- Aldis Hodge

Marissa (30s)

Kendra's best friend and producer. Smart-mouthed, loyal, stylish, always one step ahead with the clapback.

Casting Options:

- Issa Rae
- Danielle Brooks
- Yvonne Orji

Miss Lorraine (70s)

The neighborhood's watchful auntie-historian. Regal, unfiltered, and full of wisdom.

Casting Options:

- Jenifer Lewis

- Phylicia Rashad
- Alfre Woodard

Miles Jennings (35)

Kendra's network-approved "safe" ex, parachuted into the show to boost ratings. Handsome, polished, and a little too camera-ready.

Casting Options:

- Michael Ealy
- Lance Gross
- Boris Kodjoe

