

THE FEED

NCCA
ENTERTAINMENT INC.

CONTACT INFO: KELLY R. TENNEY
EMAIL: NCCAENTERTAINMENT@GMAIL.COM
PHONE: 910.262.9307

GENRE: ACTION-THRILLER/DRAMA

Format: 90-min MOW

Tone: Modern and cinematic, with emotional weight and pop-cultural sharpness, haunting and socially aware

Setting: Atlanta Georgia

LOG LINE

A brilliant Black tech entrepreneur moves into an exclusive, seemingly idyllic smart-home community, only to discover its advanced security system is a sophisticated tool for racial profiling, forcing him to fight back against the insidious surveillance built into the very foundation of his new life.

PITCH

The Feed is a high-concept, socially-charged thriller designed for networks like Lifetime, BET+, or OWN. Set in an affluent, tech-powered suburb, this limited series or TV movie explores the dark intersection of technology, systemic racism, and community control. With a gripping lead character, nail-biting suspense, and powerful emotional arcs, The Feed taps into cultural fears about surveillance, data privacy, and the commodification of Black identity. It's Get Out meets Big Brother by way of Greenleaf, a timely, twist-filled story with built-in social commentary and visual edge.

DETAILED SYNOPSIS

Malik Johnson, a charismatic 30-something tech founder, moves into Magnolia Lane—an elite, AI-powered smart-home community, after launching a revolutionary home security platform, NiaLink. But what starts as a new chapter quickly devolves into a living nightmare. A series of unsettling events, neighbors' devices flagging his presence, distorted footage, and a wrongful police encounter involving his visiting teenage cousin Lexi, leads Malik to discover a hidden bias in the community's surveillance system.

As he begins to investigate, Malik uncovers a buried algorithm within the community's security infrastructure that disproportionately targets Black residents and visitors. Gaslit by his white co-founder, stonewalled by the HOA, and under mounting stress, Malik begins to spiral until an unlikely alliance with an elderly white neighbor, Mrs. Ellison, an ex-SNCC activist, helps him reclaim his power.

In the explosive climax, Malik exposes the neighborhood's secrets during a block party, hijacking their surveillance system to reveal the community's private moments and the coded language that fueled the discrimination. In doing so, he flips the script on those in power and reclaims his story, turning his home into a tech incubator for Black innovation and liberation.

CHARACTER BREAKDOWN

Malik Johnson (30s): A visionary Black tech founder. Optimistic, intelligent, and later radicalized by the truth.

Lexi (16): Malik's Gen Z cousin. Witty, bold, and essential to the resistance.

Mrs. Ellison (70s): Former civil rights activist hiding in plain sight. Strategic, warm, sharp.

Bryce (30s): Malik's white co-founder. Well-meaning but deeply complicit.

Tasha (30s): Malik's girlfriend. Her departure underscores the personal cost of Malik's fight.

The HOA Residents: A chilling, smiling face of modern segregation.

TALENT SUGGESTIONS

- Malik: John David Washington, Stephan James, Trevante Rhodes
- Lexi: Storm Reid, Priah Ferguson, Demi Singleton
- Mrs. Ellison: Margo Martindale, Judith Light, Cicely Tyson (tone reference)
- Bryce: Nicholas Braun, Joe Keery, Jake Lacy
- Tasha: Dominique Fishback, Kiki Layne, Jurnee Smollett

THE FEED - CASTING

JOHN DAVI WASHINGTON
MALIK

STORM REID
LEXI

JUDITH LIGHT
MRS. ELLISON

JOE KEERY
BRYCE

KIKI LAYNE
TASHA

CLIFTON COLLINS JR.
HOA PRESIDENT

PRODUCTION VALUE

- Visually striking, tightly paced thriller with high concept and strong social media appeal.

DIRECTOR MATCH SUGGESTIONS

- Angel Kristi Williams (Really Love)
- Blitz Bazawule (The Burial of Kojo, Black Is King)
- Numa Perrier (The Perfect Find)
- Sam Esmail (Homecoming, Mr. Robot)

THEMES

- Surveillance and power
- Systemic bias in AI and tech
- Gentrification and coded racism
- Activism, resistance, and generational legacy
- Black ownership and digital liberation

MARKETABILITY

- Visually Driven – Leverages screen-life, split-screens, and glitch design for fast-cut promos and TikToks
- Platform Ready – Perfect for Lifetime, BET, OWN, or streamers like Netflix, Hulu, or Prime
- Talent-Friendly – Roles allow emotional depth, prestige crossover, and audience resonance
- Promo Potential – High social virality with “true crime” aesthetic and digital scandal themes
- Culturally Timely – Taps into ongoing conversations about authenticity, technology, and family betrayal

LOOKBOOK OR MOOD REEL REFERENCES

Get Out (tone, paranoia, lighting)

Black Mirror (tech aesthetic)

Greenleaf (network visual tone, faith/power dynamics)

You (digital overlays and tech surveillance)

MARKETING HOOKS & PROMO-READY TAGLINES

"The system isn't broken. It's watching."

"Privacy is privilege."

"They built it on his foundation—now he's tearing it down."

Social campaign: "#ReclaimTheFeed"

TARGET AUDIENCE & MARKET

- Lifetime / BET+ / OWN viewers
- Audiences who engaged with Get Out, When They See Us, Black Mirror, Reasonable Doubt
- Viewers age 25–54, especially socially-conscious women, Gen Z, and millennial BIPOC

CORE AUDIENCE

Black professionals, Gen Z social-justice advocates, women who are tech savvy or privacy aware, and urban/suburban audiences interested in contemporary cultural issues

WHY IT SELLS

- A timely narrative about race and technology
- A charismatic Black lead in a genre setting
- Blend of thriller and message
- Visual style and suspense lend to strong social sharing, viral moments

- Perfectly structured for a MOW or limited series
-

COMPARABLE FILMS & SERIES

Get Out (thematic & psychological thriller elements)

Black Mirror: White Bear (tech paranoia)

Greenleaf (network tone, family & community)

Reasonable Doubt (network platform fit)

You (surveillance as character technique)

STORY & HOOK - WHY THIS STORY MATTERS NOW

As AI and smart technology permeate every aspect of daily life, the question of “Who is being watched, and why?” becomes increasingly urgent. This story uses the thriller genre to unpack issues of race, surveillance, and digital control, elevating them with a character driven, emotional journey that leads to resistance, reclamation, and revolution. This is a story about what happens when the system misuses your image and what it takes to take it back.

DEMOGRAPHICS

Primary: Black audiences (urban/suburban, ages 25–54)

Secondary: Female-forward viewers, Gen Z viewers interested in activism & identity

Tertiary: Tech-focused audiences, true crime/paranoia thriller fans

MARKETABILITY

- Culturally resonant and algorithm-friendly
- Aligns with current tech and DEI conversations
- Trailer and teaser visuals (drone, push alerts, glitch) lend to high visual intrigue
- Clear social media marketing angle (#ReclaimTheFeed)
- Scalable—can inspire sequels, anthologies, or digital extensions

DELIVERABLES READY FOR PRESENTATION:

- Completed Treatment
- Scene-by-Scene Outline
- Voiceover Script & TikTok Storyboard
- Casting Deck (PDF & Visual Grid)
- Pitch Deck (12-Slide Version)
- Poster (16:9 Format)

THE FEED BUDGET ASSUMPTIONS

BUDGET: $1.5 MILLION

Schedule:

- 15 Day prep
- 15 Day Shoot
- 5 Day Wrap
- 6 Week Post

Writer:

- Budget assumes $92,153 Writer fees with WGA
- Budget assumes $20,000 Production bonus

Producer:

- Budget assumes $350,800 Producer Fees

Director:

- Non-DGA Director $45,000

Cast Assumptions:

- Cast Lead #1 $125,000
- Cast Lead #2 $125,000
- Supporting cast sag scale

Production & Creative Assumptions:

- The budget assumes filming on location in Atlanta, GA
- Local D.P.
- 2 Stand-ins ROS
- 75 BG
- Shot on Stage/Location

Post Production:

- Allowance for 1 Editor and 1 Assistant Editor
- Composer $10,000

Tax Credit & Financial Assumption:

Georgia State Tax Credit $375,000