

BLOOD COVENANT

Genre: Action Thriller / Political Conspiracy

Format: Feature Film (Approx. 100 mins)

Tone: John Wick meets The Constant Gardener

Tagline: Some truths demand blood.

LOGLINE:

A retired assassin and a relentless journalist uncover a secret society manipulating world governments but when they discover they're both entangled in its bloody legacy, they must destroy the system from the inside... even if it means becoming the villains the world believes they are.

THE STORY:

Gabriel Voss thought he buried his past, until Leila Stone, a journalist investigating her sister's death, confronts him with a name he thought he'd never hear again. What begins as a reluctant alliance turns personal as they unravel a dark web of global control led by The Covenant Initiative, a shadow network of elites who operate above borders, bound by blood oaths and betrayal. When the trail leads to Leila's estranged father, the cult's leader and a devastating truth about her sister's murder, revenge becomes a burden they must carry together. The final blow? To dismantle the conspiracy, they must frame themselves as the enemy.

WHY IT HITS:

- Emotion + Action: High-stakes thriller with real emotional weight and personal twists.
 - Star-Driven Vehicles: Two powerhouse roles for A-list talent with awards potential.
 - Marketable Hook: Secret societies, legacy trauma, redemption arcs, catnip for prestige-action streamers.
 - Franchise Potential: The Covenant Initiative can serve as a recurring villain network across spin-offs or series.
 - Cinematic World: European backdrops, brutal close-quarters combat, and a grounded tone ideal for elevated, visually arresting execution.
-

COMPARABLES:

Sicario × The Night Manager × Tinker Tailor Soldier Spy

STATUS:

Treatment, beat sheet, concept poster, and pitch deck available.

Script in development.

Casting and director attachments in progress.
