

LIFEART

Logline:

A gifted but invisible European painter finds success posing as a mysterious Chinese artist, until family visits, a government commission looms, and a curious young woman threatens to expose everything.

Why This Project?

- Timely Themes: Tackles cultural appropriation, identity branding, and the price of success in a globalized art economy.
- Visually Rich: The backdrop of modern Shanghai offers a cinematic blend of neon streets, ancient heritage, and cutting-edge design.

- Marketable Ensemble: A multicultural, age-diverse cast with strong potential for international appeal and festival recognition.
 - Genre Appeal: Combines emotional drama, romantic tension, and slow-burn suspense with art-world satire.
-

Target Platforms

Netflix, A24, Amazon Prime, Searchlight Pictures, Apple TV+

Comparable Projects

- The Talented Mr. Ripley (identity fraud & performance)
 - Call Me by Your Name (cross-cultural romance & self-discovery)
 - Velvet Buzzsaw (satirical art-world critique)
-

Attachments (Ideal Casting Wishlist)

- Alexandre: Timothée Chalamet / Louis Garrel / James Norton
- Paige: Stephanie Hsu / Lana Condor
- Pi Ding: Liu Yifei / Sandra Ma
- Quinn & Patterson: Jacob Elordi / Kelvin Harrison Jr.